The California Statewide Communities Development Authority (CSCDA) is pleased to announce the issuance of $21,200,000 in tax-exempt multifamily affordable housing bonds for Alamo Garden Apartments in Vacaville, California.

About Alamo Garden Apartments:

Alamo Garden Apartments (Alamo Garden) is an acquisition and rehabilitation of 182 multifamily affordable housing apartments by Alamo Garden Family Apartments, LP. The project sponsor is ROEM Development Corporation (ROEM). Alamo Garden will continue to be 100% affordable and provide apartments to low-income residents in Vacaville, California.

About the Financing:

CSCDA and ROEM partnered with Citibank to provide the $21,200,000 in tax-exempt multifamily affordable housing bonds for Alamo Garden. The project will undergo an extensive interior and exterior renovation ensuring that residents have an updated, safe, and affordable community to call home for years to come. The financing of Alamo Garden will maintain the affordability of units for low-income tenants for 55 years.

About CSCDA:

CSCDA is a joint powers authority created in 1988 and is sponsored by the California State Association of Counties and the League of California Cities. More than 500 cities, counties and special districts are program participants in CSCDA, which serves as their conduit issuer and provides access to efficiently finance locally-approved projects. CSCDA has issued more than $58 billion in tax exempt bonds for projects that provide a public benefit by creating jobs, affordable housing, healthcare, infrastructure, schools and other fundamental services.
