The California Statewide Communities Development Authority (CSCDA) is pleased to announce the issuance of $18,000,000 in tax-exempt multi-family affordable housing bonds for Columbia Apartments in Los Angeles, California.

About Columbia Apartments:

Columbia Apartments is an acquisition and rehabilitation of 122 multifamily affordable housing apartments by Columbia Associates II, LP. The project sponsor is Intercontinental Affordable Housing (IAHI). Columbia Apartments will continue to be 100% affordable and provide apartments to low-income residents in Los Angeles, California.

About the Financing:

CSCDA and IAHI partnered with Jones, Lang LaSalle Multifamily to provide tax-exempt multifamily affordable housing bonds for Columbia Apartments. The project will undergo an extensive interior and exterior renovation ensuring that residents have an updated, safe, and affordable community to call home for years to come. The financing of Columbia Apartments will maintain the affordability of units for low-income tenants for 55 years.

About CSCDA:

CSCDA is a joint powers authority created in 1988 and is sponsored by the California State Association of Counties and the League of California Cities. More than 500 cities, counties and special districts are program participants in CSCDA, which serves as their conduit issuer and provides access to efficiently finance locally-approved projects. CSCDA has issued more than $57 billion in tax exempt bonds for projects that provide a public benefit by creating jobs, affordable housing, healthcare, infrastructure, schools and other fundamental services.
