The California Statewide Communities Development Authority (“CSCDA”) is pleased to announce the issuance of $29,559,000 in tax-exempt multi-family affordable housing bonds for Las Cortes Apartments in Oxnard, California.

About Las Cortes Apartments:

Las Cortes Apartments (the “Project”) is the new construction of 144 affordable housing units by Urban Housing Communities (“UHC”). The benefits of the Project for the City of Oxnard and County of Ventura include the following:

- 100% of the affordable rental housing units will be rent restricted for low-income tenants.
- The Project will bring new economic vibrancy to the area.
- The Project replaces outdated 1950’s era public housing.
- The Project consists of 48 one-bedroom, 42 two-bedroom, 39 three-bedroom, and 15 four-bedroom units to house local low-income residents.

About the Financing:

CSCDA and UHC partnered with Bank of America to provide $29,559,000 in tax-exempt multi-family affordable housing bonds for the Project. The financing for the Project requires the affordability of units for low-income tenants to be maintained for 55 years.

About CSCDA:

CSCDA is a joint powers authority created in 1988 and is sponsored by the California State Association of Counties and the League of California Cities. More than 530 cities, counties and special districts are program participants in CSCDA, which serves as their conduit issuer and provides access to efficiently finance locally-approved projects. CSCDA has issued more than $57 billion in tax exempt bonds for projects that provide a public benefit by creating jobs, affordable housing, healthcare, infrastructure, schools and other fundamental services.
