The California Statewide Communities Development Authority (CSCDA) is pleased to announce the issuance of $24,000,000 in tax-exempt multifamily affordable housing bonds for Huntington Pointe Apartments in Huntington Beach, California.

About Huntington Pointe Apartments:

Huntington Pointe Apartments is the acquisition and rehabilitation of 104 multifamily affordable housing apartments by Huntington Pointe 2019 LP. The project sponsor is KDF Communities (KDF). Huntington Pointe Apartments will remain affordable and provide studio, one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments to low-income residents in Huntington Beach, California.

About the Financing:

CSCDA and KDF partnered with Citibank and Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe, LLP to provide tax-exempt multifamily affordable housing bonds for Huntington Pointe Apartments. The project will undergo an extensive interior and exterior renovation ensuring that residents have an updated, safe, and affordable community to call home for years to come. The financing of Huntington Pointe Apartments will maintain the affordability of units for low-income tenants for 55 years.

About CSCDA:

CSCDA is a joint powers authority created in 1988 and is sponsored by the California State Association of Counties and the League of California Cities. More than 530 cities, counties and special districts are program participants in CSCDA, which serves as their conduit issuer and provides access to efficiently finance locally-approved projects. CSCDA has issued more than $63 billion in tax exempt bonds for projects that provide a public benefit by creating jobs, affordable housing, healthcare, infrastructure, schools and other fundamental services.
