The California Statewide Communities Development Authority (CSCDA) is pleased to announce the issuance of $80,725,746 in tax-exempt multi-family affordable housing bonds for Vintage at Lockwood Apartments in Oxnard, California.

About Vintage at Lockwood Apartments:

Vintage at Lockwood Apartments (the “Project”) is the new construction of 341 housing units by Vintage at Lockwood, LP. The project sponsor is Vintage Housing Development, Inc. The benefits of the Project for the City of Oxnard include the following:

- 100% of the rental housing units will be rent restricted for extremely low-income and low-income senior tenants.
- The Project consists of one-bedroom and two-bedroom units, as well as four manager’s units.
- Units will be restricted to households earning less than 30%, 50% or 60% of the area median income.

About the Financing:

CSCDA and Vintage Housing partnered with Citibank and Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP to provide the affordable housing bonds for the Project. The financing for the Project requires the affordability of units for extremely low-income and low-income senior tenants to be maintained for 55 years.

About CSCDA:

CSCDA is a joint powers authority created in 1988 and is sponsored by the California State Association of Counties and the League of California Cities. More than 530 cities, counties and special districts are program participants in CSCDA, which serves as their conduit issuer and provides access to efficiently finance locally-approved projects. CSCDA has issued more than $70 billion in tax exempt bonds for projects that provide a public benefit by creating jobs, affordable housing, healthcare, infrastructure, schools and other fundamental services.
